

GN  FINANCE

From our knowledge to your values.

From our competency to your assets.

Do you know exactly what you want regarding your assets – as well as precisely what you don't want? We have the expertise and the skills you require to implement your personal investment objectives, with comprehensive and unbiased advice and support in all areas related to your asset planning. The utmost priority of our advisory services is to develop a strategy which is closely orientated towards your unique requirements.

Our company GN Finance AG is at your service, with a committed team of qualified specialists based at our headquarters in Vaduz, Liechtenstein and our branch in Zurich, Switzerland.

Individualised asset planning

Our four product segments

Customised

Asset management for private customers

Active

Support in investment decisions through investment controlling

Unbiased

Comprehensive consultation in finance and investment issues

Specific

Portfolio analysis and support in bank discussions

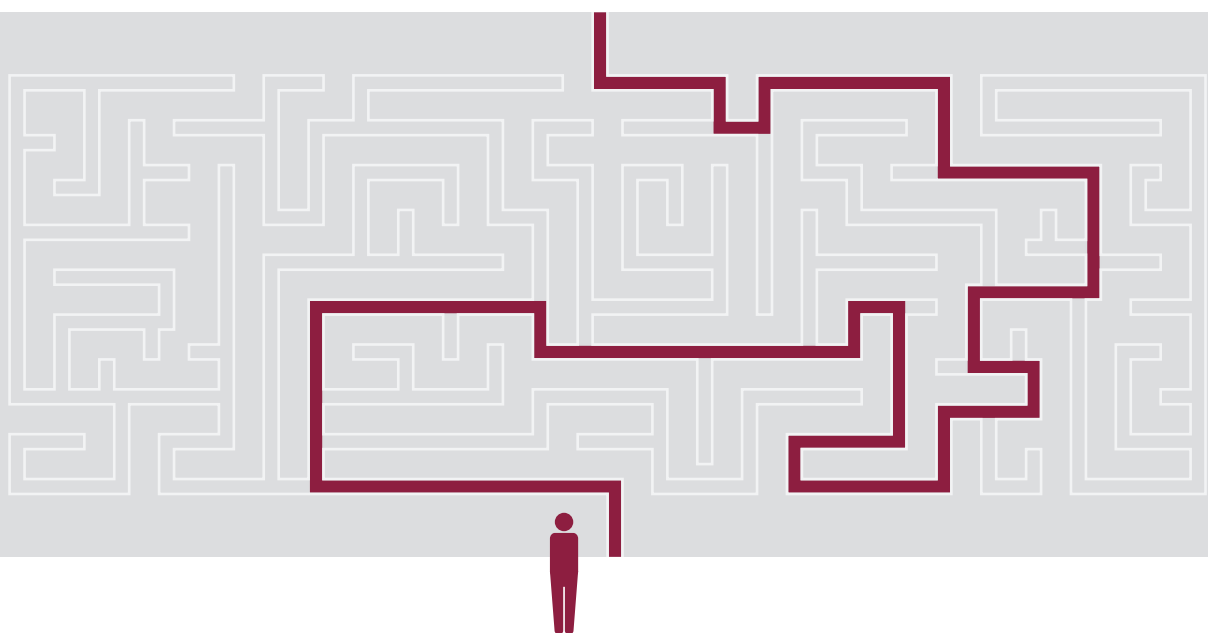

From our strategy to your investments.

Your unique requirements are the ultimate benchmark for our solutions. What objectives do you have? What do you wish to achieve? We establish an investment strategy which is first and foremost orientated towards your expectations by engaging in a dialogue with you.

We focus on a consolidated viewpoint which encompasses all your assets, and therefore also includes business assets where applicable. In implementation we also include all relevant asset classes, and as such, optimise the opportunities offered for global diversification.

Your personal investment profile decides

Between security and growth

From our expertise to your advantages.

Does the wide range of investment products leave you feeling at a loss? Are you looking for a neutral evaluator to assist you in making the right investment decisions? Our insight as a service provider who is committed solely to your mandate makes us unbiased. This enables us to analyse risk and return, and to then select the optimal investment products together with you.

Professionally analysed

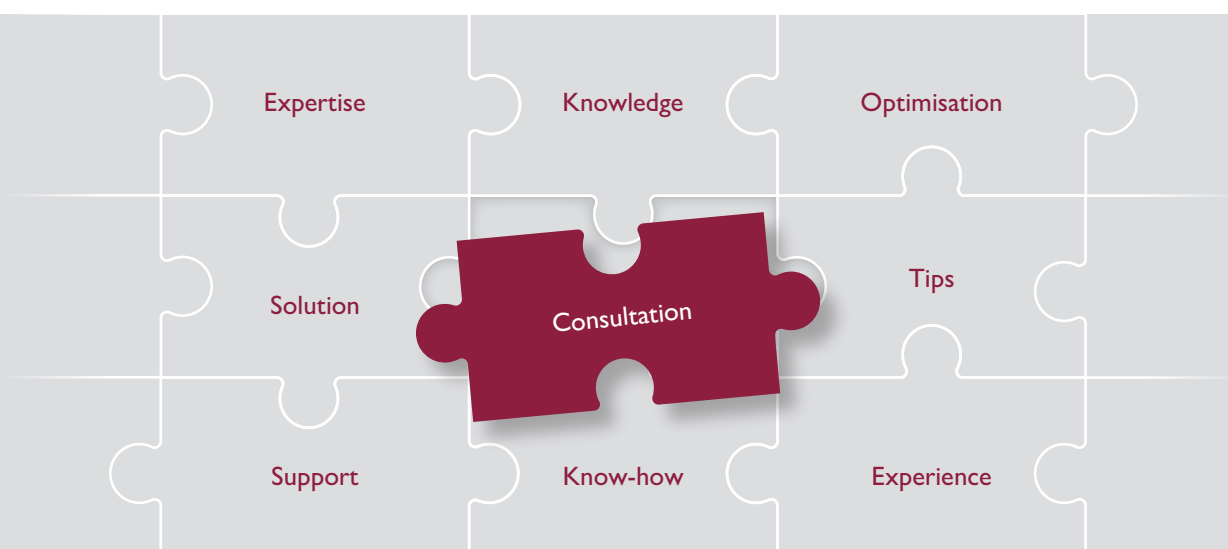

We monitor the development of your assets closely using the most modern technical applications, and these allow readjustments and specific improvements to be made at any time.

Risk minimisation

We monitor performance development in terms of risk minimisation.

Quality-orientated

As a matter of course, tax aspects, as well as regulatory and political developments, play a role in us attending to your mandate.

From our experience to your success.

Specialised knowledge, a wealth of experience and cutting-edge competency in financial markets all form the strong foundation of the GN Group. We value fully utilising our comprehensive expertise in our conscientious asset planning.

This is in line with our typical Liechtenstein mindset of focusing on strong financial services with a high value system. Consequently, we are here to support you in the areas of investment and financial advisory services, as well as finance and accounting management, and establishing and managing companies.

Here to help you

We and our team of 20 employees look forward to advising and consulting you in person.
